

These rules are going to make it easier for a monopoly of a few owners to control the news and media of individual cities and the country. Please don't pass them. At the very least, you should extend the public comment time so all who want, can comment.